[Attachment 1] 2022 Business Report

Letter to Shareholders

Year 2022 was a challenging year full of Redwood. The Company managed to generate respectable results with revenues around NTD 1.7 billion with a gross margin at 26% despite impacts from the pandemic, uncertainty as well as rising operating and material costs. Our efforts in strategic pricing and effective costs management have paid off.

As we welcome another new year, we are filled with optimism that 2023 will be a good year for Redwood.

From the macro perspective - despite all uncertainties such as inflation, global supply chains, COVID-19 and Russia/Ukraine war, personal luxury goods categories have now recovered to 2019 levels. We believe that, despite the dire environment and under competitive pressure, the Group can still achieve outstanding performance, by operating and managing our business well and continuously strengthening our competitive advantages.

It is expected that under the increasing pressure of business competition, it can be expected that there will be more competitors lowering their prices to secure a project. However, the Company will not particularly participate in this type of competition, but will focus on further improving and improving product quality, service quality, technology, and cost control policies to strengthen the advantage so that the company can continue and be ahead of other competitors.

At present, world-famous luxury brands are highly concerned with ESG (Environment / Society / Governance) issues. Therefore, the Group ensures that our production process complies with local environmental protection standards, and at the same time pay attention to fulfilling the Group's corporate social responsibility. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors and Shareholders
Redwood Group Ltd

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Redwood Group Ltd and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and the notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The key audit matters identified in the Group's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022 are stated as follows:

Revenue Recognized Based on Construction in Progress

As described in Notes 4, section 10 and Note 5 of the consolidated financial statements, revenue recognition of the Group is based on the percentage of completion of construction. Furthermore, the calculation of percentage of completion of construction is significant with regard to revenue recognition; therefore, we identified the estimation of unfinished construction cost to be a key audit matter.

We tested the related internal controls, and the main audit procedures that we performed were the following:

1. We sampled the construction proposals and examined whether the total contract price was consistent with the total contract price for calculating the project revenue or not. If the project changed, we examined the relevant proposal and revised order, etc.
2. We sampled each construction proposal, examined the contract, estimated cost sheet and other relevant documents of the project, and recalculated the completion percentage to assess the correctness of the project revenue recognition.
3. We verified the completion status of the construction in progress at the end of the period and whether there were major changes or contract modifications, obtained appropriate certificates, gathered supporting documents for the variation of the project, and verified its rationality.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the audit committee, are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the Group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

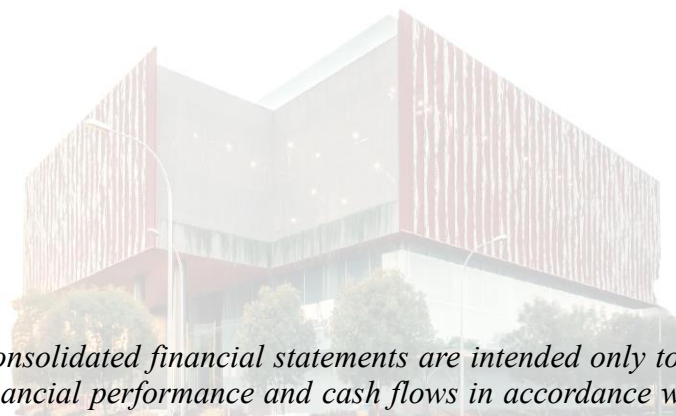

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Lee Li Huang and Ming Chung Hsieh.

damages or expenses, including legal expenses, whatsoever which they or any of them may incur as a result of any act or failure to act in carrying out their functions other than such liability (if any) that they may incur by reason of their own actual fraud or wilful default. No Indemnified Person shall be liable to the Company for any loss or damage incurred by the Company as a result (whether direct or indirect) of the carrying out of their functions unless that liability arises through the actual fraud, Gross Negligence or wilful default of such Indemnified Person or in violation of his/her/its duties provided under Article 42.3. No person shall be found to have committed actual fraud, Gross Negligence or wilful default under this Article unless or until a court of competent jurisdiction shall have made a finding to that effect.

A Director shall be liable to the Company if he/she/it has acted contrary to the above. In case such action is made for himself/herself/itself or on behalf of another person in violation of the provisions above, the Company may, with the sanction of an Ordinary Resolution, demand the Director to disgorge any profit so realized by the Director as if such misconduct is done for the benefit of the Company. If a Director of the Company has, in the course of conducting the business operations, violated any provision of the applicable laws and/or regulations and thus caused damage to any other person, he/she/it shall be liable, jointly and severally with the Company, for the damage to such other person.

42.4 The officers or managers of the Company, who are authorised to act on its behalf in a management capacity, in the course of performing their respective duties to the Company, shall assume such duties and obligations to indemnify the Company or any other person in the same manner as if they are Directors.

42.5 The Board, on behalf of the Company, may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any Director or other officer of the Company against any liability which, by virtue of any rule of law, would otherwise attach to such person in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which such person may be guilty in relation to the Company.

the Member(s) may, to the extent permitted under the laws of the Cayman Islands, file a petition with the Taipei District Court, ROC for and on behalf of the Company against the relevant Directors within thirty (30) days after such Member(s) having made the request under the preceding clause (a) or (b) if (i) in the case of clause (a), the Board fails to make such authorisation or the Independent Director of the Audit Committee having been authorised by the Board fails to file such petition, or (ii) in the case of clause (b), the Independent Director of the Audit Committee fails to file such petition.

Article 1 The Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' Meeting (the Rules) are drawn up in accordance with the Company's Articles of Incorporation and relevant laws and regulations in order to build a sound governance system for the shareholders' meeting, reinforce its supervisory functions, and strengthen its management functions.

The Board of Directors shall prepare agenda and supplementary information for the shareholders' meeting pursuant to regulations governing public companies, deliver them or make them available to the shareholders, and upload those material to the MOPS.

The notice and public announcement shall indicate the reasons for convening the meeting. The notice, if agreed by counterparties, may be delivered by electronic means.

motion or any other means within the same meeting.

Shareholders holding 1 percent or more of the total number of issued shares may submit proposals for the annual general meeting. Each proposal is limited to one subject matter. Those with more than one proposal shall not be included in the motion. In addition, if a proposal proposed by a shareholder falls under any of the circumstances in Subparagraph 4 of Article 172-1 of the Company Law, the board of directors may not include it as a proposal. Shareholders may submit suggestive proposals to urge the company to promote public interests or fulfill social responsibilities. The procedure shall be limited to one item in accordance with the relevant provisions of Article 172-1 of the Company Law. Proposals exceeding one item shall not be included in the proposal.

Prior to the book closure date before the annual general meeting, the Company shall publicly announce the acceptance of shareholders' proposals, the means for submission in writing or via electronic means, and the location and period for such submission. The period for submission shall not be less than ten (10) days.

The Company shall inform the shareholders who has submitted proposals the outcome of those proposals before the notification date for the meeting and include proposals in compliance with provisions of this Article in the meeting notice. For proposals failing to be included in the agenda, the Board of Directors shall explain the reasons in the shareholders' meeting.

Article 3 Shareholders may submit the letter of authorization printed by the Company at each shareholders' meeting, indicating the scope of authorization and appointing a proxy to attend the shareholders' meeting.

Each shareholder is limited to submit one letter of authorization and appoint one person as a proxy. The form shall be delivered to the Company five (5) days prior to the shareholders' meeting. If duplicate forms are received, the one that arrives earliest shall prevail, unless a statement is made to withdraw the previous letters of authorization.

Once the letter of authorization is delivered to the Company, if the shareholder intends to attend the meeting in person, he/she may notify the Company to withdraw the letter of authorization in writing at least two (2) days prior to the shareholders' meeting. If the withdrawal statement did not arrive in time, the voting rights of the proxy shall prevail.

Article 4 The Company shall specify the time and location for shareholder attendance registration and other matters to be noted in the meeting notice.

The said time for shareholder attendance registration shall be at least thirty (30) minutes before the meeting commences. The place for registration shall be clearly marked and a sufficient number of capable personnel shall be assigned to the task.

The shareholders or their appointed proxies (hereinafter referred to as "shareholders") shall attend the shareholders' meeting with attendance permit, attendance card or other attendance certificates. The Company shall not arbitrarily request attending shareholders to provide other documents of proof. Those who solicit letters of authorization shall also bring identification documents for verification.

The Company shall prepare the attendance booklet for the attending shareholders to sign in, or the attending shareholders may submit the attendance cards in lieu of signing in.

The Company shall deliver the meeting agenda, annual report, attendance permit, speaker's slip, voting ballot and other meeting materials to the shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting. If Directors are to be elected, ballots shall also be provided.

When the government or a juristic person is a shareholder, the representative attending the shareholders' meeting is not limited to only one person. When a juristic person is appointed to attend as a proxy in the shareholders' meeting, it may designate only one person to attend on its behalf.

Article 5 The shareholders' meeting is presided by the Chairman of the Board of Directors if convened by the Board. It is advised to have the majority of Directors of the Board and at least one Independent Director to attend in person and at least one representative from each functional committee to attend and the attendance is recorded in the minutes of shareholders' meeting. When the Chairman is on leave or for some reasons unable to exercise the power, the Vice Chairman shall serve as a proxy. If there is no Vice Chairman or the Vice Chairman is on leave or for some reasons unable to exercise the power, the Chairman shall appoint a Managing Director to serve as a proxy. If there are no Managing Directors, the Chairman shall appoint one Director to serve as a proxy. If the Chairman does not appoint a proxy, the Directors shall elect one from among themselves.

When a Managing Director or a Director is to preside at the meeting, he/she shall have held the position for at least six (6) months and understands the Company's financial and business conditions. The same rule applies when a representative of a juristic person Director is to preside at the meeting.

If the shareholders' meeting is convened by any other party entitled to convene the meeting, the convening party shall preside at the meeting. When there are two (2) or more convening parties, they shall choose a person from among themselves to preside at the meeting.

The Company may appoint designated attorneys, certified public accountants (CPAs) or related persons to attend the shareholders' meeting.

Article 6 The Company shall record audio or video commencing from the shareholder attendance registrations to the shareholders' meeting, and the voting and ballot counting processes uninterruptedly and retain the recording for at least one year.

If litigations associated with the convention procedures or resolution process of the shareholder's meeting arise, the recordings shall be retained until the litigation is concluded.

Article 7 The attendance at the shareholders' meeting shall be calculated based on the number of shares. The number of shares in attendance shall be calculated in accordance with the shares indicated by the attendance booklet or attendance card submitted plus the number of shares with voting rights exercised by correspondence or electronic means.

The Chairman shall call the meeting to order at the scheduled time and announce the number of shares with no voting rights and the number of shares in attendance. When the majority of the total number of issued shares are not represented by the attending shareholders, the Chairman may announce to postpone the meeting. The postponement is limited to two (2) times with a combined duration of less than one hour. If the quorum stipulated in the Company's Articles of Incorporation is not met after two (2) postponements, the Chairman shall announce the adjournment of the meeting. However, if a shareholders' meeting is still required, one shall be re-convened in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation.

Article 8 The Board of Directors shall formulate the meeting agenda if the shareholders' meeting is convened by the Board of Directors. Relevant proposals (including special motions and amendments to the original proposals) shall be resolved by voting on a proposal-by-proposal basis. The meeting shall proceed according to the agenda which shall not be changed without a resolution of the shareholders' meeting.

The above provisions apply mutatis mutandis to the shareholders' meeting convened by a party entitled to convene other than the Board of Directors.

The Chairman shall not announce adjournment of the meeting before completion of the agenda (including special motions) referred to in the two preceding paragraphs unless otherwise resolved at the shareholders' meeting. If the Chairman announces the adjournment in violation of the Rules, other members of the Board shall promptly assist the attending shareholders in electing a Chairman pursuant to the statutory procedures with the consent of the majority of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders to continue the meeting.

The Chairman shall give ample opportunity for explanation and discussion of the proposals, and amendments or special motions proposed by the shareholders. When the Chairman believes that a proposal has been discussed sufficiently to put it to a vote, he/she shall announce the discussion closed and call for a vote. He/she shall also allow ample time for voting.

Article 9 Before speaking, the attending shareholder shall complete the speaker's slip indicating the subject of speech, shareholder's account number (or the number of attendance permit) and account name. The sequence of speeches shall be determined by the Chairman.

If the attending shareholder submits a speaker's slip without speaking, it shall be deemed as making no speeches. If the contents of speech are inconsistent with the contents of the speaker's slip, the contents of speech shall prevail.

The shareholder shall not make a speech concerning the same proposal for more than two (2) times without the consent of the Chairman, and the duration of each speech shall not exceed five (5) minutes. If the shareholder speaks in violation of the provisions or beyond the scope of agenda item, the Chairman may stop the speech.

When the attending shareholder speaks, other shareholders shall not interrupt the speech unless they are permitted by the Chairman and the speaking shareholder. Otherwise, the Chairman shall stop such interruption.

If a corporate shareholder appoints two or more representatives to attend the shareholders' meeting, only one representative may speak for each agenda item.

After the attending shareholder has spoken, the Chairman may respond in person or appoint an appropriate person to respond.

Article 10 Before speeches are made at the shareholders' meeting, the attending shareholder shall complete the speaker's slip indicating the subject of speech, shareholder's account number (or the number of attendance permit) and account name. The sequence of speeches shall be determined by the Chairman.

If the attending shareholder submits a speaker's slip without speaking, it shall be deemed as making no speeches. If the contents of speech are inconsistent with the contents of the speaker's slip, the contents of speech shall prevail.

The shareholder shall not make a speech concerning the same proposal for more than two (2) times without the consent of the Chairman, and the duration of each speech shall not exceed five (5) minutes. If the shareholder speaks in violation of the provisions or beyond the scope of agenda item, the Chairman may stop the speech.

When the attending shareholder speaks, other shareholders shall not interrupt the speech unless they are permitted by the Chairman and the speaking shareholder. Otherwise, the Chairman shall stop such interruption.

If a corporate shareholder appoints two (2) or more representatives to attend the shareholders' meeting, only one representative may speak for each agenda item.

After the attending shareholder has spoken, the Chairman may respond in person or appoint an appropriate person to respond.

Article 11 Unless otherwise provided by the Company's Articles of Incorporation, shareholders are entitled to one vote for each share held.

When the Company convenes a shareholder's meeting, voting rights may be exercised by correspondence. When voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronic means, the methods of exercise shall be clearly indicated in the shareholders' meeting notice. Shareholders exercising their voting rights by correspondence or electronic means are deemed as attending the shareholders' meeting in person. They are, however, deemed as waiving their rights on special motions or amendments to the original proposals of that shareholders' meeting. Thus, the Company is advised not to raise special motions or make amendments to the original proposals.

A shareholder intending to exercise the voting rights by correspondence or electronic means as described in the preceding paragraph shall deliver his/her intention statement to the Company two (2) days prior to the shareholders' meeting. If duplicate statements are received, the one arrives earliest shall prevail, unless a statement is made to withdraw the previous intention statements.

Once the shareholder has exercised his/her voting right by correspondence or electronic means, if he/she intends to attend the meeting in person, he/she shall withdraw the intention statement in the same way the voting right is to be exercised at least two (2) days prior to the shareholders' meeting. If the withdrawal did not arrive in time, the voting rights exercised by correspondence or electronic means shall prevail. If a shareholder has exercised his/her voting right by correspondence or electronic means and appointed a proxy via letter of authorization to attend the shareholders' meeting, the voting right exercised by the proxy shall prevail.

Unless otherwise provided in the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the adoption of resolution shall be approved by the majority of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders.

When voting commences, the Chairman or the designated personnel thereof shall announce the total number of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders by each proposal before shareholders start to cast ballots by proposals. On the same day as the conclusion of the shareholders' meeting, the voting results of the number of votes for and against and abstention shall be uploaded to the MOPS.

When there are amendments or substitutes to a proposed resolution, the Chairman shall present these together with the original proposed resolution and determine their voting order. However, if any one of them has been adopted, the others shall be deemed vetoed and no further voting is required.

The ballot supervisors and ballot counters of proposal voting shall be appointed by the Chairman, but the ballot supervisors shall be shareholders.

The ballot counting for proposal voting or election shall be publicly conducted at the venue of shareholders' meeting. The voting results shall be announced at the meeting upon completion of counting, and along with the number of voting rights totaled, be recorded in the minutes.

Article 12 When a Director election is held at the shareholders' meeting, actions shall be taken in accordance with relevant laws and regulations, and applicable election rules of the Company. The election results shall be announced at the meeting, including the list of Directors elected and the number of voting rights thereof as well as the list of losing candidates for Directors and Supervisors and their numbers of voting rights.

The election ballots referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be sealed with the ballot supervisors' signatures and kept in proper custody for at least one year. However, if litigations associated with the convention procedures or resolution process of the shareholder's meeting arise, the sealed election ballots shall be retained until the litigation is concluded.

Article 13 The resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be recorded in the minutes. The meeting minutes shall be affixed with the Chairman's signature and seal, and distributed to all shareholders within twenty (20) days after meeting. The preparation and distribution of the meeting minutes may be done via public announcement.

The distribution of meeting minutes referred to in the preceding paragraph to shareholders who have less than one thousand (1,000) shares of registered stocks may be done via public announcements by uploading the document at MOPS.

The meeting minutes shall accurately record the year, month, day, and location of the meeting, the name of Chairman, the resolution methods, and a summary of the discussion and the voting results thereof (including the number of voting rights). For elections of Directors and Supervisors, the number of voting rights received by each candidate shall be disclosed. The minutes shall be retained throughout the life of the Company.

With regard to the resolution methods in the preceding paragraph, if no objection is voiced by any of the shareholders when enquired by the Chairman, the wordings, "The proposal is approved by a unanimous consent of all attending shareholders upon enquiry from the Chairman," shall be recorded. For proposals where shareholders voice objections, the adoption of ballot casting method, number of votes, and its percentage of total shall be clearly stated.

Article 14 On the date of shareholders' meeting, the Company shall prepare a statistical table in a prescribed format indicating the number of shares solicited and the number of shares represented by proxies, and make an express disclosure at the meeting venue.

For resolutions of the shareholders' meeting, if they meet the definition of material information under relevant laws and regulations or rules of the Taipei Exchange, the Company shall upload the information to MOPS within the prescribed period.

Article 15 Personnel at the shareholders' meeting shall wear identification cards or arm bands.

The Chairman shall direct the disciplinary officers or security guards to assist with order maintenance at the meeting venue. The disciplinary officers or security guards shall wear armbands marked "disciplinary officer" or identification cards while assisting with order maintenance at the meeting venue.

If the meeting venue is equipped with a public address system, the Chairman may stop shareholders from making a speech through other devices.

If a shareholder violates the Rules and defies the Chairman's correction, obstructs the proceedings and refuses to heed calls to stop, the Chairman may direct the disciplinary officers or security guards to escort the shareholder from the meeting.

Article 16 When the meeting is in progress, the Chairman may announce a break at his/her discretion. If force majeure events occur, the Chairman may decide to temporarily suspend the meeting and announce the time to resume the meeting depending on the situation. The shareholders' meeting may resolve to postpone or reconvene the meeting within five (5) days. In that case, Article 16.1 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation does not apply.

If the meeting venue becomes unavailable before the meeting agenda (including special motions) has been completed, another venue can be used to resume the meeting upon resolution at the shareholders' meeting.

Article 17 The Rules take effect once adopted at the Company's shareholders' meeting. The same applies to any amendment made to the Rules.

If there is any discrepancy between the Rules and the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the Articles of Incorporation shall prevail.

The date of occurrence specified in the Procedures refers to the contracting date for the transaction, payment date, resolution date of the Board of Directors, or other dates on which the endorsement and guarantee party and amount can be ascertained, whichever is earlier.

- III. The Company shall assess or recognize the contingent loss arising from the endorsement and guarantee. Information of endorsement and guarantee shall be properly disclosed in the financial statements and provided to the CPAs for conducting necessary audits.

Article 10 Guidelines for endorsement and guarantee:

- I. The Company's internal auditors shall audit the Company's and its subsidiaries'

"Procedures for Endorsement and Guarantee" and the implementation status at least once a quarter and produce written reports accordingly. If material violation is identified, they shall immediately notify the Chairman in writing and report to the Audit Committee.

- II. If, due to change of circumstances, the party to whom the Company provided endorsement and guarantee later failed to meet the criteria in the Procedures, or the endorsement and guarantee amount exceeds the limit, an improvement plan shall be formulated and submitted to the Chairman and reported to the Audit Committee. Improvement shall be completed on schedule.
- III. When, due to business needs, the amount of endorsement and guarantee provided by the Company would exceed the limit stipulated in Procedures and meet criteria herein, it shall be approved by the Board of Directors, and over half of all the Directors shall act as joint guarantors for any potential loss that may be brought about by the excess of limits. The Board of Directors shall also revise the Procedures and has it ratified at the shareholders' meeting. If the revised Procedures are not ratified at the shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall formulate plans to discharge the amount in excess within a certain period of time. Since the Company has Independent Directors, during the discussion at the Board meetings, opinions of Independent Directors shall be fully considered. If the party for which the Company provides endorsement and guarantee is a subsidiary whose net worth is lower than half of its paid-in capital, controlling measures shall be implemented in accordance with the "Rules for Supervision and Management of Subsidiaries." If the shares of the subsidiary have no par value or the par value per share is not NT$ 10, the aforesaid paid-in capital shall be the sum of capital plus "capital surplus – additional paid-in capital."
